

1.PROJECT TOPIC

my portfolio

2. Introduction

This project is about my portfolio and it's shows my skills and my projects details and also this portfolio is responsive and userfriendly .And in this portfolio i had been included my forntend skills and also i added my CV as well as my github id, instagram id, linkdin id.

3.Components with description

.Navbar

In navbar there is background video and also in left side of nav my name is there and in right side of nav there os button like about ,skills, contact,project,home.

.Header

In the header there is a hero container in that i have given small introduction about me .and there is a button of view resume if we click than it will show my resume and also there is contact button if we click on the contact button it take you to contact slide and also i have added picture also on right side of hero container.

.Logo container section

In this section i had added the logoes of my skills like bootstrap, css, html, c++, ptthon.

.About me section

In this section i had been given my brif introduction about me .

.Skill section

In this section i had given the name of skills .

.Project section

In the project section i had added all the project which every i had completed.

.Contact me section

In this section you can contact me by my email or contact number.

.Form section

In form section there id button if you click on it than the form will open and than you can fill it.

.FOOTER

.Footer section

In this section i had added linkedin account twitter account instagram account and github account

4.Tools and technology

I had make this project by the using of HTML CSS and JAVASCRIPT.